NEW-YORK CITY.
J. P. S. Jr.—Unfortunately they have inherited him.
The National Dredging Company has been incorporated with a capital stock of $150,000 by John E. Walsh, Daniel E. McKie, Edward Annan, Daniel Bingham and William S. Chapman.

The costume classes at the Art Students' League will be open to-morrow. There will be three sessions a week.
Croton water rents for the week, $25,330 69; Mar's Marshes $1,102 licenses and received for the week, $2,444 75.

The Berachah Orphanage, for the care of orphans and half orphans, has been incorporated by the Rev. Albert B. Simpson, Alvin S. Shultz, Caroline E. Shultz, Albert E. Funk, Elsie A. Seidow and Dr. Amelia Harman.

Beginning to-morrow, the steamers Rhode Island and Massachusetts of the Steamer Line will leave New York for North River, at 4.30 instead of 5 p. m.
In spite of the inclement weather during the last week, the attendance at the fair of the American Institute which is being held in Third-ave., near Sixty-third-st., has been good. This is no doubt ascribed to the reduction in the price of admission. There are some new attractions in the departments of machinery, furniture and type-writing on exhibition which have not been publicly shown before.

A huge piece of metal labelled "Rebel shell found at Fort Warner" was carried to the Charles Street Police Station yesterday. It was discovered by a man named John J. Cannon, who says it was a bullet from a cannon without any powder behind it.
H. W. Cannon, formerly Controller of the Currency and recently vice-president of the National Bank of the Republic, was elected president of the Chase National Bank yesterday. John Cannon, who has been president of the bank for many years, was made vice-president. Mr. Cannon will remain a director of the National Bank of the Republic for the present.

The New York Horticultural Society's exhibition will open on Tuesday at 3 p. m. at the Metropolitan Hall and will continue through the week. There will be 164 premiums. A Japanese garden will be in charge of Japanese ladies and gentlemen.

Collector Magone and Surveyor Beattie both denied yesterday that the latter was either to resign or to be removed.
The "Aster Fair" which will open at the Metropolitan Hall on November 4 promises to be more than ordinarily interesting. The affair is to be carried out on a larger scale than the Japanese exhibition and will be of a somewhat different character, although a real Mexican village with all the workmen and children in the houses and boats exactly as at home will be shown.

Professor Fay, of the Central Park Observatory, reports for last week the following observations: Barometer—maximum, 30.08 inches, minimum, 29.764 inches. Thermometer—maximum, 66°; minimum, 41°. Distance travelled by the wind, 1186 miles.

BROOKLYN.

The total tax levy for this year will be $5,022,880.
The new Central grammar school building in Nostrand-ave., will be formally opened to-morrow. The State Park Commissioners yesterday opened the Prospect Park Museum at the Prospect Park, which is a fine building, from which the weather signals.

Bishop Longin celebrated the thirty-third anniversary of his consecration in St. James' Cathedral yesterday. He received many calls and messages of respect from the clergy and laity. He attended mass in the morning and in the afternoon. He will leave for his home in the morning.

The Charles Commissioners yesterday adopted a resolution informing Edward J. Shannon, clerk of the Lunatic Asylum, Flatbush, that his services would not be required after this month. It was opposed by Commissioner John J. Shannon, who is a Republican and has held the position for years.
Sarah E. Haskell, of Brooklyn, is suing Elizabeth Schuler for $20,000 on a note or obligation presented to her. She received the note from the late resident of Ocean Grove, who was a resident of the late Mrs. Haskell's house. She was a resident of the late Mrs. Haskell's house. She was a resident of the late Mrs. Haskell's house.

JERSEY CITY.

George Way, age fifteen, of No. 118 Woodward-st., was arrested yesterday. He and William Hignall, age sixteen, quarreled on Friday night, and Way stabbed Hignall three times with a penknife. Way is in the left arm and once in the abdomen.

ALONG THE SOUND.

RIDGEFORD.—A $500 diamond brooch picked up in the street yesterday in a poor woman's pocket. The woman, Mrs. P. T. Johnson, who gave the brooch to the police, had been walking in the street when she found it. She was a resident of the late Mrs. Haskell's house.

LONG ISLAND.

The State Assessors have advanced the valuation of property in Suffolk County to $1,000,000. The State tax required by the county is $1,000,000, an increase over last year of $1,707 70.
LONG ISLAND CITY.—The registration tax year is 4,770, an increase of 112 names over last year.
